Upper Academy Principal's Letter

September 15th, 2011

Dear Parents and Guardians,

“Don't live down to expectations. Go out there and do something remarkable.”

Wendy Wasserstein

We are now in the 3rd week of school. Scholars should be coming home telling you about the wonderful things that teachers are doing in school. Please stay connected to BLCS and your scholar. Ask a lot of questions and get involved. Email or call if you have a concern.

Scholars should be talking about the Merit Incentive Plan. Scholars will be rewarded for earning merits. Merits can be earned for BEAMing, positive behavior, being prepared for class and other positive behaviors.

No one rises to low expectations. We expect a great deal this year. If we don't continue to push or ask for excellence, then our scholars will continue to do a mediocre job. Please encourage your scholar to come to school prepared to learn with writing utensils, books and homework done each and every day.
